SECURITY GOVERNANCE
(CONFLICT AND SECURITY CORE COURSE II:
ACTORS, INSTITUTIONS, AND ISSUES)
Winter 2011

Course Instructor: Thomas Homer-Dixon
Office: Modern Languages 232
Telephone: 888-4567 x38750
Email: tad@homerdixon.com
Office Hours: Tuesdays 2:30-4:00 or by appointment

Course Description and Objective: We begin the course by exploring the relevant configurations of actors and institutions that attempt to deal with “security” issues on the global agenda. We then move to explore various specific issues—both traditional and non-traditional—and examine recent and possible future institutional and policy responses. Part I of the course (actors and institutions) will be run as a traditional seminar. Each student will be responsible for kicking off the discussion of at least one of the assigned readings. In Part II, students will run the course themselves, taking turns presenting their research on the specific issues that they are exploring in their research papers. The set of issues that will be covered will depend upon the specific interests of the students, but may include (for example) nuclear proliferation, terrorism, intrastate conflict, resource and territorial disputes, climate change, drugs, disease, small arms, migration, human trafficking, the weaponization of space, etc. This course is recommended for doctoral students in the Global Governance Ph.D. Conflict and Security stream whose policy background is limited. It is recommended for Master’s students with interests in security policy. PSCI 659 Security Ontology is recommended (but not required) preparation.

Course Format, Time, and Location: Seminar, Tuesdays 12:30-2:20 in PAS 2085.

Academic Integrity:

Academic Integrity: In order to maintain a culture of academic integrity, members of the University of Waterloo are expected to promote honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility.

Discipline: A student is expected to know what constitutes academic integrity, to avoid committing academic offences, and to take responsibility for his/her actions. A student who is unsure whether an action constitutes an offence, or who needs help in learning how to avoid offences (e.g., plagiarism, cheating) or about “rules” for group work/collaboration should seek guidance from the course professor, academic advisor, or the Undergraduate Associate Dean. When misconduct has been found to have occurred, disciplinary penalties will be imposed under Policy 71 – Student Discipline. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalties, students should refer to Policy 71—Student Discipline, <http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy71.htm>

Grievance: A student who believes that a decision affecting some aspect of his/her university life has been unfair or unreasonable may have grounds for initiating a grievance. Read Policy 70—Student Petitions and Grievances, Section 4, <http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy70.htm>

Appeals: A student may appeal the finding and/or penalty in a decision made under Policy 70—Student Petitions and Grievances (other than regarding a petition) or Policy 71—Student Discipline if a ground for an appeal can be established. Read Policy 72—Student Appeals, <http://www.adm.uwaterloo.ca/infosec/Policies/policy72.htm>

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

Note for students with disabilities: The Office for Persons with Disabilities (OPD), located in Needles Hall, Room 1132, collaborates with all academic departments to arrange appropriate accommodations for students with disabilities without compromising the academic integrity of the curriculum. If you require academic accommodations to lessen the impact of your disability, please register with the OPD at the beginning of each academic term.
